Democrats Renominate Daniel P. Dunn for Mayor—A. C. Scripture for City Clerk and Treasurer—Other Names on the Slate.

The democratic general city caucus was called to order Saturday evening in town hall shortly after 8 o'clock by Chairman James F. Twomey of the democratic town committee owing to the absence of Henry H. Hunter, chairman of the democratic city committee. Col. J. H. Morrison was chosen chairman and William A. Costello clerk. After the clerk had read the warning, nominations for mayor were called for.

Town Clerk and Treasurer Frank P.
Fenton paid high tribute to the executive ability of the present incumbent and presented the name of His Honor Mayor Daniel P. Dunn as the democratic nominee for mayor of the city to succeed himself. There was hearty applause at the conclusion of the nominating speech.

Ex-Mayor O. O. Tanner seconded the nominations and was accorded a round of applause. There were no further nominations and Mayor Dunn was declared the candidate for mayor unanimously by acclamation.

Mayor Dunn obtained the floor and said that no matter what the public press said about him, not a newspaper dared to accuse him of crooked work or being in any way mixed up in anything but a square deal. After thanking the caucus for the honor bestowed upon him, he further said that "I am going to win for myself and the whole democratic ticket and if elected will try to prove faithful to the trust that you bestow upon me."

Ex-Alderman James Haggerty presented the name of James J. Twomey for alderman at large in a clever speech and he was the choice by acclamation.
Attorney Samuel B. Harvey presented the name of Samuel B. Denohue for second alderman at large in a forcible speech. Ex-Mayor O. O. Tanner offered the name of Charles M. Holbrook for alderman at large and Michael Shea presented the name of Thomas Ashton for the same office. These nominations were taken and the names of Timothy Reagan and James Haggerty ballots were distributed and the result
